Miss Blowers, New Jersey Man Recite Vows At Bolivar Church

BOLIVAR — Miss Elizabeth Blowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Blowers, 90 Plum St., became the bride Saturday morning (Sept. 3, 1966) of John A. Woods. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Woods, 101 Clairmont Terrace, Elizabeth, N.J.

The Rev. John P. Hennessey performed the double-ring ceremony at St. Mary's Church here before an altar decorated with pink and white gaidoli and red roses. Miss Norene Crowley of Fredonia furnished the music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length white peau de soie dress with tea cup sleeves covered with lace. The bottom of the A-line skirt was accented by a six-inch border of lace. White velvet highlighted the bodice and sleeves and a chapel train extended from the waistline. She wore a tiara of seed pearls, aurora borealis and lace which held a bouffant elbow-length veil, and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Miss Mary Jean Blowers was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Miss Jane Bartell, a college roommate; Miss Cecelia Cawley, Miss Sally Poletto, Miss Angela DaPolito and Mrs. William Coene.

The attendants selected A-line floor-length dresses of pink linen. They were fashioned with Empire bodices trimmed with cranberry velvet, repeated on the sleeves. The matron of honor wore a cranberry headpiece of lace with a net chapel veil resembling a picture hat.

She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses, carnations tipped with pink and white daisy pompons. The accessories of the bridesmaids were in pink with identical flowers.

Little Holly Monahan was the flower girl. She donned a linen dress identically made with cranberry velvet trim and a cranberry headband. Her flowers were miniature copies of the others.

William Coene of Rochester was best man for the bridegroom. Seating the guests were Harvey Pollicove of Rochester, Richard Wilhelm, Peter Meglaw and Robert McGinnis of Elizabethtown, N.J., and Fred Ekerband of Brick Town, N.J.
