

Edward C. Mossop Sr.

November 10, 2020

Edward Charles Mossop, Sr., age 67, of Woodbury Heights passed away on November 10, 2020. Born in Clinton, NJ, to Alfred and Nancy (Flack) Mossop, Ed grew up in Wenonah and lived for several years in Gibbstown. He was a graduate of Gateway Regional High School and attended the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts. Ed spent his career working as a remodeling contractor.

Ed was an exceptional artist, specializing in abstract painting and one of his pieces is on exhibit at the Franklin Institute. He was also a musician, mainly a drummer but also liked to play the guitar. He loved to read and drink his tea; and he was a collector of several teapots and Tibetan Singing Bowls.

Ed is survived by his mother Nancy Mossop; his children Adrienne Sanker and her husband Daniel of Peyton, CO, Edward Mossop Jr. of Colorado and Emily Smith and her husband Jonathan of Newark, DE; his grandchildren Dayton, Jackson, Lincoln, Clara and Alice; his brother Robert Allen Mossop of Newfield; and his sisters Cindy Lu Cameron of Pennsylvania and Bethann Tiver and her husband Donald of Shamong. He was predeceased by his father Alfred Mossop.

A celebration of Ed's life is being planned for a later date.
