

New School Headed by John Lelko

WESTVILLE — John M. Lelko, superintendent of the Westville School District, has been named superintendent of the new Gateway Regional High School District, it was announced Tuesday.

Lelko, 41, of 53 Underwood rd., Levittown, Pa., was selected from among 29 applicants for the position at a special meeting of the regional board, Ralph Henderson, president, said.

By EDMUND C. GLOWKA

Lelko was educated in the Northampton, Pa., school system and received his degree at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., where he majored in history and secondary education.

He did his graduate work in elementary education at Kutztown, Pa., State College. He received his master's degree in education at Rutgers University, where he is presently doing graduate work in education.

Lelko, who has been superintendent of the Westville District for the past two years, is certified as an elementary and secondary teacher, and principal and administrator.

Formerly administrative principal in Waterford Township, he plans to move into the Gateway area with his wife, Sophia, and daughter, Carolann, as soon as possible.

MONTHLY CARD PARTY

MAPLE SHADE — The United Republican Club of Maple Shade will hold its monthly card party Thursday at club headquarters, 15 N. Forklanding rd.

John M. Lelko appointed Gateway Superintendent

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Mon, Sep 26, 2022