

Deposit Your Money in the Wilber National Bank, ONEONTA, N. Y.

Largest Capital of any Bank in Town. CAPITAL, $100,000.00. SURPLUS, 200,000.00.

THE SAVINGS DEPARTMENT. Issues Certificates of Deposit when desired, bearing the very best rates of interest consistent with sound banking.

DEALERS IN GOVERNMENT BONDS, and all first-class securities. GIVES prompt attention to all kinds of banking business.

EVERYTHING NEEDED IN THE LINE OF

School Supplies

can be found at our store. We have in stock all the different text books used in the Morris High School and the District Schools.

A greater variety of PADS at Lower Prices than ever before.

Get a Big 10c Pencil Pad for 5 cts.

V. J. & A. R. HOKE.

WHAT TO DO

DON'T TAKE PILLS.

The various so-called liver pills have had their uses, but they are not the best. Many of the pills contain calomel or strychnine, which are poisonous.

DR. SOUTHWORTH'S Stomach and Liver Compound

is a liquid. It is a remedy that requires no effort of the stomach. A few minutes after taking it is a part of you and on its way to the liver.

DR. SOUTHWORTH'S Stomach and Liver Compound

Registered by the University of the State of New York.

ALBANY BUSINESS COLLEGE. It will pay you to attend. Albany, N.Y.

S. E. MONROE, Painter and Decorator.

First National Bank OF MORRIS, N. Y. PAID UP CAPITAL, $50,000.00.

JAS. P. KENYON, President. A. E. POTTER, Vice-President.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT AND COUNTY NEWS PAGE.

The Morris Chronicle.

Wednesday, November 23, 1898.

L. P. & E. E. CARPENTER, PROPRIETORS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Burrell Bros. will leave Morris in a few days. See change of ad.

Sloan & Folts sell the toughest paint now known—Devon lead and zinc.

Mrs. George Whitman was at her old home in Bainbridge last week.

Henry Whitcomb and his mother were over from Otego Sunday and Monday.

Miss Jessie Moore of Omaha is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, at the Gardner house.

Mrs. W. H. Widger of Laurens and Mrs. Florence Tobey Smith of Susquehanna are visitors at the Kenyon house.

Miss Amy Bowne of this place, a student in the Oneonta normal, has been elected president of the Clintonian society.

Farmers bear in mind the Farmers' Institute and Dairymen's association to be held in Otego, December 6 and 7, 1898.

Mrs. F. E. Jennison goes this week to Syracuse and vicinity to visit relatives. She will be absent about two weeks.

Mrs. S. S. Wheeler, of Pittsfield, Mass., is visiting her parents, O. Braley and wife, and other relatives and friends in town.

The annual donation of the M. E. society occurs at the church on Wednesday evening of this week. A Chicken Pie supper will be served.

The Morris Club are moving this week into the elegant rooms over the Bank, which have been specially fitted up for their use by Mr. Kenyon.

Any farmer or others wanting the services of a day laborer can find such by calling or sending to this office. We know a man who wants work.

Elijah Thurston presented us with several stalks of celery, grown in his garden. It was set out on the 15th of August, and was very nice and well blanched.

Henry Whitcomb of Otego has hired out to Amos Carrick to work the Whitcomb farm, two miles above the village. He and his wife will move there March 1st.

Howard A. Tanner, who resides near the Butternuts town line on the west side, has recently purchased the Chas. O'Neil place, which adjoins his, of Samuel C. Gilbert.

A schedule for rhetorical work in the Morris school has been made out for the remainder of the year. The first exercises will come this Wednesday p. m. before the Thanksgiving vacation.

Irving Slater of Burlington has moved into the Dilworth house on Mechanic street. Mr. Slater has moved here to give his two sons the benefit of the Morris school.

A Burlington Flats correspondent thus speaks of their school teacher this year, who is W. M. Lull of Morris: "Mr. Lull is proving himself to be a first-class teacher and the school is progressing finely."

The Dispenser is the name of a new weekly paper coming from Burlington. It is not, as might be judged from its name, a pharmaceutical journal, but another kind entirely, edited by Rev. F. E. Benjamin.

Robert Redfield and wife of Cooperstown spent Thursday night at the sister's, Mrs. F. H. Isabel's. Mr. Redfield is an employe of the Otego Farmer office, an operator of the type-setting machine (Linotype).

The Syracuse University Glee Club, of which Lyon Jennison is a member, will make a two weeks' Christmas trip giving entertainments, going as far west as Cleveland. The Glee Club rehearses every day from 5 to 6 p. m.

Mrs. Redfield and her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Palmer of Steuben county, were in town last week visiting Mrs. F. H. Isabel, who is a daughter of Mrs. Redfield, and who has been seriously ill, but who, we are pleased to learn, is better.

The Freeman's Journal asks: "Did you ever experience fall weather?" The multitudes of farmers who have been trying to plow and dig their potatoes this season can answer the question quite easily.

Or was Bro. Shaw's question marred? J. S. Bradley the hardware man of New Berlin sold the trap to Ceylon Williams of Keelchum in which he, Mr. Williams, caught the forty-nine—not fifty—rats in one day. Mr. Bradley says that he has sold nearly one hundred of these traps.

Supervisor Hoke is on the following committee, and being a Republican in the minority, he is on the tail end of each. On poor house, highway and poor money, incorporated companies. Supervisor Durso of New Lisbon is on the equalizing committee.

C. H. Lawrence is shipping to the city Thanksgiving market 550 turkeys, a lot of ducks, several pigs (roasters), and over 1,000 pounds of chickens, all dressed, he buying them alive. One of the turkeys weighed thirty-eight pounds after being killed. For the turkeys Mr. Lawrence paid 9c a pound.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sterling desire to convey their warmest thanks to the members of the Parish Aid the Guild of the Daughters of the Church and to other parishioners and friends who have contributed so materially to their comfort and convenience by putting the fittings in the bathroom at the rectory.

The promising young black trotter Branch formerly owned in Richfield Springs, has become the property of Dr. L. M. Day of Burlington Flats. This horse, says the Mercury, is considered one of the most promising horses in this part of the State.

The doctor traded the pacer Nicholas, which he got two years ago of Rev. N. B. Ripley, in the above deal.

We present this week our annual Thanksgiving number. We are aided in the expense of doing so by generous advertisers whose offerings it will pay you to read carefully. These advertisements were un-solicited this year, past experience proving the benefits of such enlarged efforts occasionally. The reading matter in the Chronicle this week is of the very best. This is a paper to file away. Extra copies may be had at the office for 2c. each. Send a friend one.

Doubles the Wear. The wear of Devon lead and zinc is doubled by zinc and grinding.

Oneonta Star of Nov. 17.—Allen Smith, son of Mrs. Albert Burgess, a young man about 20 years of age, went to the Binghamton state hospital Wednesday, Mr. Smith, who is naturally of a bright intellect, is at present suffering from a loss of memory, and he has been encouraged to hope for relief by a course of treatment at the institution mentioned.

Evangelist Randall closed his services in the special meetings held at the Baptist church last Wednesday evening. The church was filled to hear his closing sermon. Dr. Randall is a powerful preacher, learned in the Scriptures and apt in explanation and illustration. During his twelve days here nearly every night was dark and stormy, greatly hindering his efforts to do the good he might have done. His visit, however, was profitable to those who heard him, and through them others were doubtless helped. He is now in Hamilton Square, N. J.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

Mrs. Lina Brown of this village has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Stephen M. Brown, upon statutory grounds. The action was commenced by Mr. Brown (the husband) in January 1897, and after issue was joined it was referred to Hon. James W. Barnum of Cherry Valley to hear and determine. The referee has just made his decision, in which he grants a divorce to the wife, who was defendant in the action, also giving her alimony and costs. Mrs. Brown is also given the right to resume her maiden name of Lina Jaquith. W. J. Palmer was attorney for Mr. Brown and Johnson & Huntington represented Mrs. Brown in the action. Quite naturally Mrs. Brown's Morris friends are congratulating her over the outcome of this matter.

OTSEGO AND ADJOINING COUNTIES.