STROUSBURG — The Pocono Record will begin operating a bureau office in Mount Pocono Wednesday. Located in the Mount Pocono Boulevard (Route 81) building is the first of its kind, initiated by The Record to provide expanded service in the growing Pocono Mountains. "We feel the people of the Mount Pocono, Conowingo, Tarrytown, Tunkhannock, Harriet and nearby areas of Paradise and Pocono Mountains will be better served through the new office as far as news coverage and information of advertising from that area is concerned," said James Hilly, editor. "A public open house will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. until noon Wednesday. All Pocono residents are invited to meet the personnel who will be the Mount's eyes and ears in the greater Mount Pocono area.

Alan Evans, a native of Stroudsburg, who has recently moved to Mount Pocono, will be the Record's reporter operating from the Mount Pocono Bureau. Mrs. Ruth Vinson of Stroudsburg, a native of Mount Pocono Bureau.

"The Mount Pocono Bureau," Hilly said, "provides a more personal, added typing equipment, and addition of UPI and New York Times wire services as increased service to Record readers throughout the Pocono Mountains."
